Sacred Heart of Jesus Province - INK Bangalore - India

XXIX/1 June 2021

My dearest Sisters, affectionate Greetings from the Provincial House Bangalore!

We have stepped into another academic year with lot of uncertainties and questions. I have no doubt that many of us would be raising this question in our mind or in conversations: how long is COVID 19 pandemic going to continue?

It has caused a serious impact on almost every society of the earth. The lockdown has been recognized as the only method to control the spread of the pandemic and almost every country has adopted this method.

Amidst the lockdown in Indian society, multiple issues related to social, educational, economical, political, agricultural, psychological levels and many more have been noticed which has created the devastating impact on the lives of the people.

Impact of COVID-19 has been multiple and not only limited to society at large. From the perspective of the economy both rural and urban have been impacted adversely. Everyone has seen the issues being faced by migrant workers; will they be the same when Covid-19 ends? Of course not. The migrant workers depend on daily earnings; they barely have savings which they could spend during any emergency.

Many of them have already abandoned this world. Those who didn't have many resources left with them have started to move to their villages because of the unavailability of jobs and money in the cities. Walking thousands of miles barefoot.

Moving from the economy, the impact of Covid-19 on education has been cruel and its repercussions will be seen in the upcoming future. As per the report of World Bank titled "Beaten or broken: Informality and COVID", WB has warned that there will be the lifelong impact of school closures on the productivity of this generation of students.

Children being out of school for long months might forget some facts as well as impact their learning capacity.

With any pandemic or any situation which impact the society at large comes the problem of psychological trauma. The lockdown has proved that "man is a social being" because continuous lockdown for about four months have impacted people psychologically and the burden has been faced by everyone. As India is recognized as land of diversity, so the impact of COVID-19 is diverse and countless. It has been truly said that "crisis gives birth to the changes which were pending for many years", same has happened during the time of Covid-19. Be it online education or other platforms for services. But, again the benefits from these transformations will be limited because of the gap in the digital connectivity of our country.

At this stage, we should ask a genuine question: What kind of society we'll see post-Covid-19? How are we going to meet the post covid19 challenges in our mission? I think we need to find new ways of going about our routine tasks and become more innovative, courageous, committed and enthusiastic in serving the humanity in this most difficult situation. Let us become the feet, hands eyes, ears and heart of Jesus to all.

FEAST OF SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus presents us with the opportunity to reflect on the relevance of this venerable symbol in our daily lives. The image of the Sacred Heart is never mentioned as such in Sacred Scripture, but its meaning can be found spanning each page from Genesis to Revelation.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is the manifestation of human and divine love in Jesus Christ, True Man and True God, Redeemer and King. The Sacred Heart of Jesus reveals the depths of God's love for us. "The heart of Jesus" is His inner life, which was always radiated truth, goodness, and beauty. "The Sacred Heart of Jesus" is both His heart of flesh, but also His mercy and love—both as a man and as God. Such love surpasses human understanding. Such love led God to become man and face the agonizing death of the Cross—this love demonstrates God's desire for our redemption and our love.

When we speak of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we speak in a single, simple expression of the sensible human love of Jesus. We speak at the same time of a human love that was infused with a divine love in His soul and His will. Finally, we speak of a divine love which Jesus shares with God the Father and God the Holy Spirit. When we speak of the Sacred Heart of Jesus we are reflecting and discussing fundamentally this: the love of and mercy of Jesus Christ.

A spirituality of the heart is all about love; the love God has for us present since the beginning of creation but made known in the Scriptures and brought to full realisation in Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus not only makes known God's all-embracing compassionate love, he is also the perfect example of what it is to be a loving human being. Following the example of Jesus we enter our own heart and discover there God's love; and deeply immersed in God's love for us we are invited to go out and be on earth the heart of God.

Jesus' heart reaches out for us, it goes out in search of us; it pines after us as a shepherd for a lost sheep. Let us take a moment today to imagine ourselves as that lost sheep of Luke's Gospel. As a sheep loved by the Shepherd, whose loving heart follows after it wherever it may go always seeking the good of His fold, gathering them together in love, and leading them in peace by His gentle voice. Each of us is the lost sheep: as individuals, as communities, and as a human family. God seeks to reconcile us to Himself and loves us so much that He sends Jesus, the Good Shepherd, in search of us, to bear us on His shoulders and bring us back rejoicing to the eternal pastures of the New Jerusalem.

Let us take to heart the rich meaning of this ancient devotion; let us allow ourselves to be struck by the love of Christ. In the ordinary moments of our lives, the simple as much as the spectacular, the majestic as well as the mundane, may we be transformed by the knowledge that we are loved and respond with gratitude to love in return. May our hearts beat along with the heart of Jesus, be conformed unto His, and in doing so become channels of His intense, intimate love for each person; that our hearts too may be afire with the incarnate love of God. Let us prepare for this feast well by the practices proposed. As it is the feast of our province, let us pray fervently for all our communities and its mission.
