Sr. Lucy Rose Ozhukayil was born on 20 May 1952 at Athirampuzha, Kottayam District in Kerala state. She had her initial formation at Maligaon Guwahati, Novitiate at Bellefonte Shillong and made her first profession on 05 August 1979 at Bellefonte Shillong. She has done her Bachelor in Science (B. Sc) at CMS College, Kottayam, Bachelor in Education (B.Ed) at St. Mary's College, Shillong, has done two years Diploma Course in Salesian Spirituality at Casa Madre Ersilia Canta, affiliated to the Pontifical Faculty of Religious Sciences "Auxilium" Roma. She has also attended courses for the General Coordinators of the Province (Organized by the Institute of the Salesian Sisters at Rome), for the Novice Mistresses (Organized by the FMA Institute at Rome), and for the new provincials (Organized by the Institute at Castelgandolfo - Rome).

From (2008 - 2021) Sr. Lucy Rose served the Institute as the Visiting General councilor. She was closely associated with the province of Sacred Heart of Jesus, Bangalore for the past 12 years, as visiting General Councillor for two consecutive terms and had made Canonical Visitation of the province twice, has done the Process of Discernment for the consultation of the Provincials of our Province, has made number of short visits for various occasions and celebrations. She proved herself as an efficient Formator and an able administrator; she is a patient listener, kind advisor, and gentle mother to all who approach her. She is person oriented, friendly, pleasant, affectionate and has a keen interest in the integral growth of every one. She has a strong sense of belonging to the institute and deeply rooted in Salesian charism and Spirituality.

While we congratulate her we assure her of our cooperation, collaboration and prayerful support as she is going to lead our province for the coming six years. We pray that the Holy Spirit and our Blessed Mother guide and lead her always and everywhere.

Congratulations Best Wishes! Congratulations Congratulations
